KANHAIYA GOYAL

PROFILE

A dynamic Full Stack Web Developer with a foundation in metallurgy engineering from NIT Rourkela, I bring a unique blend of technical acumen and adaptive learning capabilities. Proficient in multiple programming languages, notably Python, I have cultivated a strong skill set through diverse on and off-campus initiatives. Recognized for my ability to swiftly grasp new concepts, I pride myself on being a quick learner. Complementing these skills is my collaborative spirit; I thrive in team settings, contributing actively and ensuring collective success.
